

BRILL

VULCAN 9 (2021) 181-182

Contents

VOLUME 9, NO. 1

From the Editor 1
Steven A. Walton

ARTICLES

- New Eyes for the Army:
How Scientists, Photographers, and Artists Reshaped Military
Understanding of the Battlefield in the Great War 5
Andrea Siotto
- Playing Hide-and-Seek in the German Press:
The Presence and Absence of Camouflage in WWI Narrations 18
Noemi Quagliati
- Visualizing Tanks:
Art and Technology in the Great War 50
Barton C. Hacker
- The Tommy Gun in Jungle Warfare:
The Use and Usefulness of the Thompson Submachine Gun for Australian
Soldiers on the Kokoda Trail, New Guinea, 1942 84
John Moremon
- Development Obscured:
Assessing Differing Versions of the Birth of the US 4.2-Inch Recoilless Rifle
in WWII, Helped by Curious 1950s Episodes 118
Yoel Bergman
- The Co-Production of National and Technological Orders:
The Birth of Israel's Military Research Organization 147
Ari Barell

BOOK REVIEWS

- Lori A. Henning. 2019. Harnessing the Airplane: American and British Cavalry Responses to a New Technology, 1903–1939. Norman, OK: The University of Oklahoma Press 177
Andrea Siotto
- Dale E. Wilson. 2018. Treat 'Em Rough! The Birth of American Armor 1917–20. Havertown, PA: Casemate Publishers 179
Chris Ketcherside