Aims and Scope

The Netherlands Yearbook of International Law was first published in 1970. It has two main aims. It offers a forum for the publication of scholarly articles of a more general nature in the area of public international law including the law of the European Union. In addition, it aims to respond to the demand for information on state practice in the field of international law. Each Yearbook therefore includes an overview of state practice of the Netherlands.

Under the combined subscription arrangements this volume of the Yearbook is linked to Volume 56 of the Netherlands International Law Review. Orders should be sent to: Cambridge University Press, Customer Service Department, The Edinburgh Building, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge, CB2 2RU, UK. From Volume 36 (2005) on, the Yearbook is also available online through the Cambridge Journals Online service, which can be found at <<http://journals.cambridge.org>>. For further information you may visit <www.asserpress.nl/cata/nyil/fra.htm>.

All correspondence with regard to the contents of the Yearbook should be addressed to the Managing Editor, T.M.C. Asser Instituut, P.O. Box 30461, 2500 GL The Hague, The Netherlands, e-mail: NYIL@asser.nl.

T.M.C. Asser Instituut - Institute for Private and Public International Law, International Commercial Arbitration and European Law

Institute Address: R.J. Schimmelpennincklaan 20-22, The Hague, The Netherlands; Mailing Address: P.O. Box 30461, 2500 GL The Hague, The Netherlands; Tel.: +3170 342 0300; Fax: +3170 3420 359; Internet: www.asser.nl.

Over forty years, the T.M.C. Asser Institute has developed into a leading scientific research institute in the field of international law. It covers private international law, public international law, including international humanitarian law, the law of the European Union, the law of international commercial arbitration and increasingly, also, international economic law, the law of international commerce and international sports law.

Conducting scientific research in the aforementioned domains is the main activity of the Institute. In addition, the Institute organizes congresses and postgraduate courses, undertakes contract-research and operates its own publishing house.

Because of its inter-university background, the Institute often cooperates with Dutch law faculties as well as with various national and foreign institutions.

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

1. Embargo

Articles submitted to NYIL should not be simultaneously under consideration elsewhere. Acceptance of the Editors offer to publish implies, that authors agree to an embargo on publication elsewhere, either in English or another language, for a period of two years following the year of publication of the Yearbook containing the article in question.

2. Copyright

Copyright is exclusively reserved to the author(s).

3. Fees

Authors will not receive a fee, but will be presented with a copy of the Yearbook containing their article, together with a total of 25 off-prints free of charge. Any additional copies of off-prints can be ordered prior to publication, and will be charged.

4. Editorial policy

All papers are refereed by the Board of Editors. The Board of Editors reserves the right to suggest modifications and/or additions to the paper submitted, and further reserves the right to reject, or to revoke acceptance or to withhold publication of any paper.

5. Language

Authors are requested to submit their paper in English. Papers accepted for publication may, at the discretion of the Editors, be linguistically revised.

6. Proofs

The author will receive proofs for correction. Corrections should be kept to a minimum. The only corrections which should normally be necessary are those relating to type-set errors or those which take account of important material or references not previously available, or subsequent developments of notes. Substantial modifications to the text or footnotes will not be permitted, except in consultation with and with the consent of the Editors.

7. Submission of papers

Contributions should be provided, on one side of A4 paper, paginated, double spaced together with an electronic copy on a clean new disk in Word or WordPerfect. However, the manuscript may also be submitted by e-mail attachment, together with the contributor's full mailing address. The maximum length of the article should be 450 words per page, 35 pages, including footnotes for a full article and 20 pages for a case-note.

An abstract of 150-250 words, and a list of no more than 10 keywords should be submitted. The text should be divided in sections and subsections.

Footnotes should be numbered consecutively throughout the text. The first footnote of each contribution marked with an asterisk should contain name, position and (institutional) affiliation for each author. Thereafter, footnotes should be numerical, starting with number 1.

Authors should carefully check for errors before submitting. Authors are responsible for accuracy of quotations, for supplying complete and correct references, and for obtaining permission, where needed, to cite another author's material.

For house-style information please refer to the Managing Editor at <nyil@asser.nl>, the rules of citation and points of style should be observed closely.
